B Wildwood Studio
Deri Chilton Russell

About
Hello and Welcome! The niches I am currently craving are in realistic style paintings and architectural glass mediums. Although I have a line of clothing with images of my award winning work you may be interested in. My content is mainly local landscapes and people. The way the light hits, the movement in the grasses...come, check out my work, see my creative space. Open year round by chance or appt. Yes, I take commissions. Active member of the Federation of Canadian Artists and The Saugeen Artist Guild.

H Barbara Hotson Watercolours
Applegate Farm

About
Welcome to our Century Swing Beam Barn! (Not sure what a swing beam is? Come and find out!) While you are marveling at the light coming through the barn boards, explore the barn and enjoy the paintings. I have recently begun to paint on watercolour canvas in addition to traditionally framed paper. Local landscapes have long been my inspiration while trips to the beach have prompted the waterscapes. You'll also find unframed teaching demos, souvenir posters and framed pen and ink sketches with watercolour. My work has been called "luminous and magical". I hope you will agree.

R All Sorts Acres
Jennifer Osborn

About
At All Sorts Acres Farm, shepherdess Jennifer happily makes things using the wool from her sheep, natural dyes, and up cycled items. From sculptures to rugs to felt paintings, find out how wool goes straight from the sheep to a unique piece of art. Come and meet the sheep, ducks, dogs, cats, and chickens that all play a part in our permaculture farm and bring a little piece of the farm home with you. P.S. We are a working farm, so no good shoes, and no dogs allowed off lead please.
